HOW TO HOST COOKIES FOR A CURE FOR THE NFED

INTRODUCTION

You can help people affected by ectodermal dysplasias have a brighter future by raising funds for the National Foundation for Ectodermal Dysplasias (NFED). Fundraising events have an added benefit. They help raise awareness for the different types of ectodermal dysplasias and the NFED. The more people who know about ectodermal dysplasias in the medical and dental communities and the general public, the more likely people will help advance our mission.

The most powerful way we can raise funds and awareness is through you—our volunteers. You are our champions. You are the one making your mark. Your circles of relatives, friends, co-workers, and neighbors, your knowledge, your personal journey and your commitment cannot be matched by anyone outside of our community.

This guide walks you through the steps to set up your own “Cookies for a Cure” event and explains how the NFED can help.

Supporting you, supporting each other.

If you have questions, contact:

Thank you for supporting and advancing our mission to empower and connect people touched by ectodermal dysplasias through education, support and research!

EASY-TO-FOLLOW STEPS

Bake a couple dozen of your favorite cookies.

Any cookies will work. Mix and match them. Have fun with this! It's a perfect family fundraiser to include your children. Check out our Pinterest board for cookie ideas. We have established "Cookies for a Cure" boards for each month for inspiration. @nfed1128

Put five "big" cookies in a bag.

Seal it with a "Cookies for a Cure" label. See the template in this Tool Kit for your labels. Or, if you can't print them, we will do that for you and mail you the labels.

Ask friends, family members and others to help market them.

You could fundraise at your place of worship, at school, at work, hit up your family members and friends, neighbors, or anywhere there are crowds of people. How about combining it with a yard sale or a lemonade stand with all proceeds going to the NFED?

Hand out a NFED brochure and/or a fact sheet to raise awareness.

We can send you NFED brochures and also help you create an individualized NFED fact sheet for your event. This will include a photo of you or your family along with facts about the NFED and ectodermal dysplasias.

Take lots of pictures of you and your family baking and fundraising.

Remember to ask permission before taking them. If you post these or share with us to post, please ask your participants to sign the photo release enclosed in this tool kit.

Collect donations.

There are many ways that you can accept donations. You can use any of these options exclusively, or combine them.

- Cash. Simple and easy. Write down their names and complete address to keep track. All donors will receive a donor acknowledgement letter from the NFED with proper documentation. Deposit cash and mail a check or money order to NFED with you list of cash donors and their addresses. See cash log.
- Checks. Checks should be payable to the NFED with "Cookies for a Cure" in the memo so that we can identify it as your fundraiser. After you collect all the checks and cash, send it to the address below with a short note.
